

The Living Room

A fun, FREE informal gathering for emerging artists to hang out, get inspired, and talk about big ideas and theatre careers with their peers and Vancouver's professional artists. Each session runs from 7PM to 9PM in our studio at PL1422 (1422 William Street). No advance registration required – just show up!

Shawn Macdonald

Donna Soares

September 25, 2017

Many paths to training

What kind of training prepares you to work professionally? Do you need a degree? How do you continue honing your craft?

Conversation moderated by Brian Cochrane

Camyar Chai

Mindy Parfitt

November 27, 2017

Script-based rehearsal vs. devising process

How are these two processes different? What do they have in common and what skill sets do they require to pull it off?

Conversation moderated by Veronique West

Sarah Rodgers

Raugi Yu

February 26, 2018

Working for free . . . and making a living.

When should you stop working for free? What factors help you choose a project? How do you value yourself?

Conversation moderated by Jamie King

Ashlie Corcoran

Jovanni Sy

April 16, 2018

Artistic Direction like a boss!

What decisions go into programming a season? How are art, finance, talent, and audience expectation all balanced?

Conversation moderated by Adele Noronha

www.rumble.org for more info

With support from the Greater Vancouver Professional Theatre Alliance

